$4 million in scholarships awarded at 2009 Hispanic Youth Symposium

More than 150 students from throughout Idaho received college scholarships after participating in the 2009 Hispanic Youth Symposium in Sun Valley April 24-26.

Scholarships valued at just over $4 million were awarded at the symposium, which brought nearly 300 Idaho Latino high school students together for a weekend of motivational speakers and hands-on workshops. Students also participated in speech, talent, art, and athletic and interactive skill competitions.

The symposium was sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy, contractors at Idaho National Laboratory, Gem State Diversity Initiatives, state agencies and private employers. Educational institutions awarding scholarships were College of Idaho, Boise State University, Brigham Young University-Idaho, College of Southern Idaho, College of Western Idaho, Eastern Idaho Technical College, Gonzaga University, Idaho State University, Lewis-Clark State College, Northwest Nazarene University, University of Idaho, University of Montana, Utah State University, Utah Valley University and Treasure Valley Community College. Several institutions also offered College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP) scholarships. In addition, Gem State Diversity Initiatives (GSDI) awarded scholarships for all competitive events as well as to students showing promise -- $1,000 to seniors (Si Se Puede) and $500 to juniors (Querer Es Poder). The entire list of scholarship winners follows at the end of this news release.

The symposium targets the important themes of school dropout prevention, continuing education, taking pride in Latino culture and breaking the cycle of poverty. Through the symposium, students learn that nothing is impossible because they have the power to shape their own futures.

- Tia Velasquez of Century High School (Pocatello) was awarded the $2,500 Natalie Lupe Reyes Memorial Scholarship for being selected the outstanding female student of the symposium. She also received a $1,640 scholarship to BYU-Idaho and a $9,000 scholarship to Utah Valley University.
- Marco Soberanes of Idaho Falls High School was awarded the $2,500 Frank Gamboa Sanchez Memorial Scholarship for being selected the outstanding male student of the symposium.
